REMARKS:

SOURCE: 25X1X [REDACTED]

1. Soldiers wearing green epaulets were no longer observed in the installations on either side of Regattastrasse, Berlin-Gruenau, on 11 May 1951. Troops observed in the compound in the angle formed by Bohmsdorferstrasse and Regattastrasse wore black-bordered black epaulets, and the officers wore blue-bordered black ribbons around their caps. The sentries at all entrances wore red epaulets. Motor vehicles seen at the compound included:

[REDACTED] Comment: An LGB signal unit of personnel who previously wore black-bordered green epaulets is carried in the LGB compound at the intersection of Bohmsdorferstrasse and Regattastrasse. [REDACTED] The soldiers there who, according to the present report, wore black-bordered black epaulets, probably also belonged to a signal unit. The LGB personnel in the other installations are now wearing black-bordered
